BGSU Selects Fostoria School As New Branch

The University has expanded its branch school program to include a fourth branch at Fostoria, President McDonald announced recently.

Other branches are located at Bryan, Fremont, and Sandusky. In his announcement Dr. McDonald also said that Ray C. Orwig, a BGSU graduate and the head of the Commercial Department at Fostoria High School, has been appointed director of the new branch.

The branch has been set up at the request of the Fostoria public school system which is providing classroom space and laboratory facilities for course work.

An informal survey revealed that a large number of qualified students in the area are not able to go away to a college or university and will take advantage of this opportunity to continue their education close to home.

The first year of college training in Liberal Arts, Business Administration, and Education is planned for next year, with second year courses being set up the following year if the demand warrants it.

Classes will begin next September, meeting in the late afternoon and evening. Courses will offer the same credit that they carry on campus with instructors from the regular University faculty teaching most of the courses.

Further information and admission materials are available from the branch director at Fostoria High School.

Nunamaker, Gee Receive Honor Titles As 'Outstanding Greeks' Are Named

Choral Groups Unite
For Sunday Concert;
Selections Announced

The "Cantata of Peace," by Cardon V. Burnham, director of choral activities, will be one of the selections performed during the concert by the combined choral groups of the University, Sunday night, April 26.

Composed in 1957, the composition will be presented for the first time in this area by the A Cappella Choir and guest soloists during the concert in the Grand Ballroom of the University Union.

This concert will mark the final appearance of the choral groups for this school year, according to William Kraus, publicity manager. In addition to the A Cappella Choir, taking part will be the University Chorus and the Collegiate Chorale.

Franz Schubert's "Mass in G" will be performed by the Chorus and Chorale, with guest soloists. An organ accompaniment will be used to captivate the style in which this work was first given.

Linde Gee, Alpha Xi Delta, and Norman Nunamaker, Alpha Tau Omega, were revealed as the Outstanding Greek Woman and Outstanding Greek Man for 1958-59 at the Interfraternity Council Sing in the University Union's Grand Ballroom, Saturday night.

Miss Gee and Nunamaker were selected for the honor by two anonymous committees appointed by Pres. Ralph W. McDonald, which screened the campus fraternities, and sororities' nominations.

Miss Gee, an elementary education major, has been pledge class president, corresponding secretary, and president of her sorority. She was also rush party chairman for two years, the sorority's candidate for Crystal Ball Queen and Key Queen, a member of the sorority's quartet taking part in the Phi Delta Theta Barbershop Sing for two years, and active in sorority intramurals for three years.

She was also a member of the Council on Student Affairs, senior representative to the Student Council, and AWS recording secretary and second vice-president. She served as junior class vice-president, and has been a member of A Cappella Choir and Collegiate Chorale for four years, serving the former as secretary for one year.

A member of WRA for four years, Miss Gee was its secretary during her sophomore year, and also served on the Kohl Hall House Board. She was a freshman member of PEM Club, and as the YWCA representative to UCF, she has served on its membership committee. She also belongs to Cap and Gown, Book and Motor, Kappa Delta Pi, and has a 3.82 accumulative point average.

Nunamaker, a music major in the College of Liberal Arts, has a 3.47 accumulative point average. He was the recipient of one of six national ATO scholarship awards this year, and is a nominee for the Thomas Arkle Clark Award, which is presented to the outstanding ATO from the fraternity's 119 chapters in this country. He has served as chairman of Sadie Hawkins Week, Homecoming, and Alumni Relations committees, and has been worthy usher, worthy sentinel, IFC representative, song leader, and delegate to the Cleveland Alumni Association.

Theta Chi Wins Sing; Blackburn Top Leader

By DAVE MERTZ

Vogtsberger Joins University Hospital; Replaces Sermonte

Dr. Henry Vogtsberger, an Upper Sandusky physician, has accepted appointment to the medical staff of the University Health Service and will begin his duties as a University physician Sept. 1, 1959.

Dr. Vogtsberger, a native of Toledo, is currently engaged in general practice in the Upper Sandusky area. He is a graduate of Oberlin College and has the M.D. degree from Western Reserve University Medical School. His internship and residency were served at St. Vincent's Hospital in Toledo. He served with the Army Medical Corps during World War II.

A member of the American Medical Association and the Ohio State Medical Society, Dr. Vogtsberger has also served on the Wyandot County Board of Health and on the Citizens' Advisory Committee for the Study of Narcotics.

The new physician is married and has two sons. He will replace Dr. William Sermonte who is presently fulfilling a temporary appointment.

In addition to Dr. Sermonte, the Health Service is staffed by Dr. John H. Marsh, director, and Dr. Louis W. Nowack.

With its spirited rendition of the spiritual "Ezekiel Saw de Wheel" and a highly dramatic presentation of "Battle Hymn of the Republic," Theta Chi was named first place winner in the Interfraternity Council Sing. This year marks the eighth time in nine years that the fraternity has received this honor.

Receiving the certificate of award, in lieu of the first place plaque and trophy that were not available for presentation, was the Theta Chi song leader, Jim Fluke. The song leaders of the second and third place winners also received certificates because their plaques had not been received by the IFC Sing committee. The first place trophy, given each year, has been taken from the Theta Chi house and has not been found.

Taking second place in the Sing was Phi Kappa Tau, and the Phi Tau song leader, Jerry Blackburn, was named the outstanding song leader by the judges and received a rotating trophy. The second place winner's selections were a hymn, "Now Let Every Tongue" and the spiritual "Climbin' Up the Mountain."

Sigma Chi, with Denis Baum as song leader, received third place honors with Rogers and Hammerstein's "There is Nothing Like a Dame" and the Sigma Chi "Sweetheart Song."

Doug Cotner, graduate assistant in speech, acted as master of ceremonies for the program and presented the awards. Co-chairmen for the event were Jim Wilkens and Bill Park.

Three other fraternities participated in the Sing. Phi Delta Theta sang "I Got Plenty of Nuttin'" and "Tell Me Why;" Alpha Tau Omega offered "Brothers Sing On" and "Younger Than Springtime," and Sigma Phi Epsilon sang "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and a fraternity pledge song.

Judging the singing were Roy V. Hilty, choral director at Bowling Green High School; Joseph Himmel, associate professor of music; and Cardon V. Burnham, director of choral activities.

Delta Tau Delta, Delta Upsilon, and Sigma Nu were scheduled to appear in this annual event, but for various reasons were unable to do so.

Providing additional entertainment throughout the program and while the judges were conferring were several students who proved to be exceptionally talented and popular with the audience. Robert Sealander presented a brilliant classical piano solo; Esther Bendick's vocal solos were her usual top-quality; the Alpha Xi Delta quartet, composed of Linda Gee, Joyce Evans, Pat Ensign, and Mary Ann Sockrider, gave another prize-winning performance with two selections; and "The Bowlers," a group of freshman men living in Shatzel Hall sang several songs and showed that they should be called upon again soon to furnish entertainment at another program.

Greek Week Activities Proceed; Hughes To Be Featured Speaker

With Greek Week having proceeded to the halfway mark, several major events are still upcoming. One of the foremost of these will be the Interfraternity Council - Panhellenic Banquet Thursday at 6 p.m. in the Grand Ballroom of the Union.

HUGHES

A feature of the affair will be an address by Francis M. Hughes, the national president of Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

Dr. Hughes received his BA degree from Ohio Wesleyan, is a graduate of the University of Michigan Law School, and has his LL.D. from DePauw University.

In his affiliation with the fraternity's national organization, he has served as vice-president from 1948 to 1950, supervisor of scholarship from 1950-56, and was elected to his present position in 1956.

In undergraduate work, Dr. Hughes was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, men's honorary scholarship society; Pi Delta Epsilon, men's honorary leadership society; and the Order of the Coif.

Tonight has been set aside for the regularly scheduled fraternity and sorority meetings. Olympic Night will be held tomorrow. Friday evening will see the staging of the second annual Carnival Night in the National Guard Armory. Saturday, the week will be concluded with the pledge project in the afternoon and a dance in the evening. This final event will feature Buddy Morrow and his "Night Train" orchestra.

'Church Street' Receives Plaudits For Striking Set Design, Effects

By THELMA MADDEN

The thesis production of "Church Street" performed last week end met with mediocre success. Although the acting left something to be desired, the set designing and technical effects were most striking.

The play itself was dedicated to the memory of its author, Lennox Robinson. Robinson was internationally recognized for his skill as a playwright, and as director of the famed Abbey Theatre. Robinson was also a visiting professor of English and speech at the University in 1948.

Skip Ferderber as the playwright of a play within a play handled his part capably, although he looked a little young for the part and lapsed at times into something bordering over-acting. Aunt Moll, an eccentric old lady, was portrayed with deftness by Virginia Miller. Her characterization was constant throughout the production and excellent make-up aided in the character creation.

A commendable portrayal of Joseph Riordan by Gene Bowman carried many of the scenes he appeared in. This is Bowman's second major role of late, and it appears that he may be seen in many more major parts. Playing the part of Bowman's wife was Gini Seaborn.

Special mention should be made of the two elderly ladies, Miss Pettigrew and Mrs. Delacy who were played by Judy Edwards and Jan Stash. Adding a note of comedy and tragedy all in one, the two were outstanding in their parts.

Other cast members included Jerry Bruns, Sande Habitzel, Becky Kurber, Tom Kassay, Margaret Sullivan, Harold Bates, Fred Howell, Paulen Clark, and Wayne Ward.

Blocking of the show wavered from very good to not so very good and back again. Robert Kinzle, set designer, deserves special plaudits for turning out many unusual effects which heightened the drama of the various scenes.

Director was Ted Windt, graduate assistant in speech. Peg Faze was assistant to the director.

BOWLING GREEN'S GREEK WEEK began on the campus of the University of Toledo, Saturday afternoon, as Bill Koester, TU Interfraternity Council president, presented a lighted torch to Ron Harmon, BG IFC president. Looking on are Lynn Griffith, Greek Week co-chairman, and Harvey Bibicoff, IFC representative. TU's Greek Week ended Saturday.

FOLLOWING THE TORCH RUN, when representatives of BG's 27 Greek groups relayed the lighted torch to the campus, Beth Adams, president of Panhellenic Council, lit the fire-pot placed east of the University Union. It is planned to keep the fire burning throughout the week.

Pre-Registration Includes Having Pictures Taken

Pre-registration begins this week for prospective seniors, and next week for all other undergraduates. This year, pre-registration will include having pictures taken, the Registrar's Office has announced.

Beginning with the fall semester of '59-60, the University will start using a new student identification system, George Lynch, assistant to the registrar, has announced. Each student's identification card will bear his picture.

The new ID will not be cardboard either, but will be something on the order of the credit cards used by many business concerns, Lynch explained, being laminated and with the student's name and address embossed on it. Mechanical imprinters, such as those used in department stores to transfer the buyer's name from his charge-a-plate to a bill-of-sale, will then be placed at points on the campus where students have to present their ID cards for identification purposes.

These spots will include the Library, Business Office, Registrar's Office, and the University Union's Information Desk, Lynch added. When checks are cashed or books are checked out, the student will have his ID card inserted in the imprinter, which will put his name on the check or call slip and thus furnish a positive means of identification.

This week, prospective seniors will be the first to have their pictures taken for the new ID cards, as they go through pre-registration procedures. All undergraduates may pre-register from April 27 to May 15.

The procedure to be followed by a student after having his schedule approved by the dean of his College or his adviser begins with going to the Registrar's Office and picking up a slip giving the times for picture taking, then having the photo taken in the room at the northeast corner of the rec hall, and then returning to the Registrar's Office to turn in the record.

Bunn Quits Duties At University Job; Departments Unite

John W. Bunn, a member of the University faculty since 1939, has resigned effective July 1 to join the business management staff of Kent State University.

He will be succeeded by F. Eugene Beatty, who is now capital improvements officer.

Pres. Ralph W. McDonald announced that effective immediately the capital improvements office and the department of plant operations, which Bunn has headed, will be merged. This department will be known as the building and facilities department.

The combined office will have administrative responsibility for the planning, maintenance, and operation of all University buildings and physical facilities.

Beatty is an alumnus of the University, having received his bachelor's degree in 1938 and his master's degree in 1948. He has been a member of the administrative staff of the University for the past 18 years, serving in various offices including that of assistant to the president. He has served as capital improvements officer during the University's recent program of building expansion.

The department of plant operations has been under the direction of Bunn since 1953. A past Registrar of the University, Bunn will serve as a special consultant to Beatty until July 1.

Paternalism—Pros And Cons

During the past months in several college papers, the question has been raised, "Have colleges become too paternal, too concerned over student welfare?" This "concern" refers to the counseling system in many colleges, the close supervision of class schedules, fraternities, sororities and dorms, and adjustment, personality and general behavior of the students.

Items questioned concerning paternalism were, "Should parents receive news about their child's progress in college; should professors take attendance or give quizzes to see that everyone keeps up on the subject; should an upperclassman run to his counselor for advice every time he or she is in difficulty; and should the student's personality and problems be the business of other people?"

The editorial column in the SCRIPTORIUM, the student newspaper of the College of St. Scholastica in Duluth, recently offered the following pros and cons for such "paternalism."

"PRO—Students should be thankful that schools devote time assisting them to solve their problems. The counseling system is a great boon to the student. Granted, an upperclassman in college is an adult; still he or she needs help in selecting a program.

"Also professors are justified in taking roll and in giving short quizzes. The instructor spends time preparing class work and he should not be forced to lecture to a group of inconsiderate 'boobs' who come to class to get out of the rain. As for sending reports to parents, why was this even mentioned? Who has a better right to know a student's progress than the parents of each particular student?

"Adjustment, personality, and general behavior should be recorded. In this way a student's improvement can be noted.

"CON—Excessive 'paternalism' has no more place in a college or university today than it does in a company. Must college students, many of them well over twenty, be treated as high school teen-agers?

"High school graduates who decide not to go to college but secure a position in a firm are generally treated with more adult measures than their college student counterpart who is supposedly to be learning 'management' methods. Will the student who is patted on the head fondly, or kindly told, 'This is not the way we do it here,' be able to successfully control those workers under him who have had the experience of the laboring world? The labor force will not treat the young executive or graduate nurse with 'kid gloves.'

"In this era of moon rockets and six-and-one-half-hour jet flights to London, our colleges and universities cannot afford and should not presume to be twentieth century counterparts of eighteenth century finishing schools for 'gentlemen and gentlewomen.'"

College For The Future

Good Students Are Called Clods, Beer And Blanket Parties Thrive

By ELEANOR STARBUCK

"Morals at Know — All Tech? Naw, but we've got lots of vices, and boy, are they great! — real-ly gr-r-rea-at! Yeah, no kiddin'! We hardly have any of those other things — lots of beer and blanket parties, tho!"

"Look, Snark, there goes that Jan Goodly. Jeez, is she out-talunch! I can't understand how she can study so much. Ya know, if I'd see her without a book, I'd never even know her—no joke! She never goes anywhere—but to class, to eat and sleep, and to STUDY! Man, what a clod!"

Quarry Action Seen

"Hi, Rex! When ya goin' out to the quarry? Hey, Pat, how 'bout a little quarry action? We're gonna watch the submarine races. After dark the crowd's goin' down to the Pub! Good grief—can't study all the time! I'll get to class. Read Hamlet?—haven't had time."

These are typical quips taken from conversations frequently heard on almost any college campus. They may be the extremes, but are examples of the student talk that label our so-called "institutions of higher learning" as playgrounds.

The question I wish to raise is: Is College Life so different from the "American Way of Life?" I say it is not so far removed from the executive cocktail parties, bridge clubs, country club dances, and vacations in Florida or the trips to the Mardi Gras. Even fraternities are like the well-known Elks Club.

If it is not so different from this American mode of life, then what should be emphasized in a college education?

The purpose of an education is to teach the student how to be successful—train him to be the top man in his field, or to create a greater desire to learn all he can. In order for him to obtain these goals, "Book-learnin'" is not enough. No, not at all, because the individual must also learn to walk into a social group with the poise of Charles Atlas, pick up a sherry glass (with little finger extended) and "sip quickly" before the waiter gets out of his sight and reach. He must know how to cha-cha-cha with the "Boss-man's" daughter and twitter with his wife. Most of all the "Hold That Liquor! Cheer with the Ol' College Try" is sung with the best nasal twang that is bestowed upon this "on-the-way-to-the-top" Junior Executive.

TSL Success Key

Therefore, the door to success is opened by "ivy-covered" corkscrews for the accredited TSL (Top Shelf Liquor), by making the honor role for perfect attendance at the blanket parties, and a beautiful swan dive off the make-shift springboard at "The

Discussion At Seminar Lead By Sophomores

Anthony Dindia and Andre Lovell, sophomores in business administration, will lead the discussion at the second marketing seminar at 3:30 p.m., Thursday, in the Wayne Room of the Union.

"Automobiles — How and Why Americans Buy," will be the topic. The seminar is open to all students and faculty.

Room Smoking Vote Postponed

To smoke or not to smoke!

It has been decided that the question of smoking in the rooms of women's residence hall will be voted on at some future date this year. The decision was made at the legislative board meeting of the Association of Women Students April 14, according to Miss Carol Lenz, assistant to the dean of women.

The reason for the delay in voting, said Miss Lenz, is that material is being printed presenting the pros and cons of the subject so that women may consider both sides of the issue before making a final decision.

Letter To Editor

To The Editor

This is an appeal to the students of BGSU. What is with this sunlamp craze? Hardly a day goes by that I don't see a lobster-faced girl or guy walking through the Nest. Sunlamps are healthful devices when used correctly, but they can also be harmful devices when used improperly.

Everytime I see a sunburned student I can visualize them sitting at their desk—six inches away from a glaring sunlamp for about ten minutes. Some have even been sitting under them for as long as an hour! Skin, when exposed to such violent rays for a long period of time, becomes leathery in texture, and can become permanently scarred. Also, the eyes, a person's most precious possession, can be damaged permanently.

Are we immature children? As adult college students we should be wise enough to use sunlamps in a correct manner. In the future, automatic timing devices may be developed, but until that time we should be sensible.

I myself, among many, had to learn the hard way, but why do so many students have to learn this same way?

Official Announcements

There will be a meeting of potential English Honors candidates for next year's graduation on Thursday, April 23, at 8 p.m. at the home of Dr. H. C. Brogan in Portage. Transportation will be provided for students who meet in front of the Practical Arts Bldg. between 7:45 and 8 p.m.

Any Junior English major or minor who feels he may be eligible should inquire at the English office about qualifications prior to the meeting.

All students in the College of Education planning to graduate a year from now, February, 1960, or June, 1960, may obtain registration information and check sheets from the Office of the Dean, 209 Administration Bldg.

Pre-registration for freshmen and sophomores in the College of Business Administration for the summer sessions and the fall semester will begin April 27 and end May 15.

Appointments for conferences with advisers may be made on and after April 20 by signing advisers' appointment sheets in the department offices of advisers, viz:

Accounting, 316 Adm.
Business Administration, 302 Adm.
Economics, 316 Adm.
Journalism, 315 Adm.
Secretarial, 304 P.A.

Liberal Arts Juniors may register starting April 20. Each student must take his own personal summary of his academic record to his adviser. If the student does not have the form for this summary, he may pick one up in the Liberal Arts office.

Helms Receives Nat'l ODK Post

Dr. Lloyd Helms, dean of the Graduate School, was elected the national secretary of Omicron Delta Kappa, men's honorary leadership society, at the twenty-first national convention of the society in Pittsburgh last week end.

Dr. Helms attended in the capacity of Province 4 Deputy, and Bob McLean and Herman Kobay, two student members of the local Beta Tau Circle, and Dr. Raymond Yeager, circle adviser, also attended.

Over 250 delegates from colleges and universities from coast to coast made Hotel Webster Hall their headquarters for the convention. The convention's theme was "Challenges for Leadership."

THE CARE AND FEEDING OF ROOM-MATES

Room-mates are not only heaps of fun, but they are also very educational, for the proper study of mankind is man, and there is no better way to learn the dreams and drives of another man than to share a room with him.

This being the case, it is wise not to keep the same room-mate too long, because the more room-mates you have, the more you will know about the dreams and drives of your fellow man. So try to change room-mates as often as you can. A recent study made by Sigafos of Princeton shows that the best interval for changing room-mates is every four hours.

How do you choose a room-mate? Most counselors agree that the most important thing to look for in room-mates is that they be people of regular habits. This, I say, is arrant nonsense. What if one of their regular habits happens to be beating a Chinese gong from midnight to dawn? Or growing cultures in your tooth glass? Or reciting the Articles of War?

Regular habits, my foot! The most important quality in a room-mate is that he should be exactly your size. Otherwise you will have to have his clothes altered to fit you, which can be a considerable nuisance. In fact, it is sometimes flatly impossible. I recollect one time I roomed with a man named Osage Tremblatt who was just under seven feet tall and weighed nearly four hundred pounds. There wasn't a blessed thing I could use in his entire wardrobe—until one night when I was invited to a masquerade party. I cut one leg off a pair of Tremblatt's trousers, jumped into it, sewed up both ends, and went to the party as a bolster. I took second prize. First prize went to a girl named Antenna Radnitz who poured molasses over her head and went as a candied apple.

But I digress. Let us turn back to the qualities that make desirable room-mates. Not the least of these is the cigarettes they smoke. When we bum cigarettes, do we want them to be shoddy and nondescript? Certainly not! We want them to be distinguished, gently reared, zesty and zingy. And what cigarette is distinguished, gently reared, zesty and zingy? Why, Philip Morris, of course! Any further questions?

To go on. In selecting a room-mate, find someone who will wear well, whom you'd like to keep as a permanent friend. Many of history's great friendships first started in college. Are you aware, for example, of the remarkable fact that Johnson and Boswell were room-mates at Oxford in 1712? What makes this fact so remarkable is that in 1712 Johnson was only three years old and Boswell had not yet been born. But, of course, children matured earlier in those days. Take Mozart, who wrote his first symphony at four. Or Titian, who painted his first masterpiece at five. Or Hanso Felbgung, who was in many ways the most remarkable of all; he was appointed chief of the Copenhagen police department at the age of six!

It must be admitted, however, that he did badly. Criminals roamed the city, robbing and looting at will. They knew little Hanso would never pursue them—he was not allowed to cross the street.

If you are allowed to cross the street, tie yourself to a tobaccoist and stock up on Philip Morris, outstanding among non-filter cigarettes, or Marlboro, the filter cigarette with better "makin's." Pick your pleasure.

Week End Is Black One For Falcon Athletes

Baseballers Lose Two MAC Games

The Falcon baseball team traveled to Kalamazoo over the week end and saw how the champions do it as they absorbed double defeat, 9-1 and 6-1, at the hands of Western Michigan.

The Broncos, winners of seven Mid-American Conference titles, including three in the last four years, had little difficulty with BG as they ran their season record to 8-2 and their MAC mark to 2-0.

Coach Warren Steller sent Wade Diefenthaler against Western Friday but the stocky right-hander just didn't have it. He lasted an inning and one-third, walking five and permitting two hits that added up to six runs.

Ed Phillips relieved him, allowing one more run in that horrible second inning before getting Joe Gresser to fly out in his second at-bat of the inning.

John Linn pitched the third and fourth for the Falcons, allowing four hits and two more runs.

Dave Hornick hurled the final three innings, holding the Broncos hitless and runless before the rains came in the seventh frame and ended it.

The Falcons' only threat of one run and two hits came off Bill Topp in the fourth. With one out, Dick Kuzma walked and moved to third on Ron Blackledge's single.

Ray Reese popped up for the second out, but Jim Cordiak sent Kuzma home with a single to left. Blackledge advanced to third, but Cordiak was cut down as he tried to stretch his hit to a double, ending the inning.

Topp struck out four and walked only two in winning his third of the year against one loss.

Saturday's game was just about a rerun of Friday's as WM jumped to an early lead and received another fine pitching performance that left BG with a 1-3 MAC record and 2-3 overall.

This time it was Phil Bareis scattering six Falcon hits while striking out 11 and walking five.

Grants Offered For Grad Study

Two hundred fellowships for graduate study in 15 foreign countries will be offered by foreign governments and universities through the Institute of International Education for the academic year 1960-61.

The scholarships cover tuition and varying amounts of maintenance in universities in Austria, Denmark, France, Germany, Iran, Israel, Italy, the Netherlands, Sweden, Switzerland, Canada, Brazil and Mexico. Students applying for Italian university awards or Austrian, Danish, French, German or Netherlands government awards may apply for a Fulbright travel grant to supplement their scholarships. Two additional awards, offered by an American foundation, are for any country in the Far East, South or Southeast Asia and Africa.

General eligibility requirements are United States citizenship, a bachelor's degree or its equivalent before departure, language ability sufficient to carry on the proposed study, and good health. A good academic record and demonstrated capacity for independent study are also necessary. Preference is given to applicants under 35 years of age who have not had extensive foreign experience. While married persons are eligible for most of the above described awards, the stipends are geared to the needs of single grantees.

Starky Stalks

By Bob Starkweather

Toledo University will hold its first annual spring grid game Saturday, May 2, when their varsity will host some of their alumni. The coach of the alumni squad was complaining to Toledo's Downtown Coaches Association when one of his men was declared ineligible until it was pointed out that he would have former Cleveland Brown star Emerson Cole and New York Giant regular Mel Triplett for that position. Poor guy.

BG's baseball team took it on the chin last week when they found that regular second baseman Jack Steinicke would be lost to the team for several weeks. While running a lathe in an Industrial Arts class a piece of copper flew loose and gave him a nasty cut on the left hand.

The Falcon thinclads weren't the only runners in action over the week end. Sixty fraternity and sorority runners did a very good job of running a torch the 25 miles from the University of Toledo campus to BG. Only casualty was a couple of skinned knees when one runner tripped and fell.

From Ohio University we get word that they feel that their "Operation Big Switch" has been a success. Seems they had to redo their team when two of the starting infielders suffered broken ankles. We'll go along with their feeling. They handily turned back Marshall over the week end, 23-6.

Can you believe it! The Cleveland Indians have won six straight going into Sunday's contest with Kansas City. Maybe the baseball cool city of Cleveland will start to wake up again.

Eastern Mich. Invades, Defeats Falcon Netters

Eastern Michigan came to Bowling Green, Saturday, with a well-balanced tennis team and defeated the Falcon netters, 5 to 4, despite fine efforts by Bob Colburn, Doug Ganim, and Dick Abele in the singles and Ganim and Colburn in the doubles.

In the first singles, Colburn rushed the net quite frequently while his opponent, Joe Siedl, preferred the baseline. Colburn played Siedl's backhand to advantage in winning the first set, 6-3. He also won the second set, 6-3, as he was consistently hitting the lines and the corners.

In the second singles, Ganim nearly ran his opponent to death with brilliant cross-court and drop shots. Ganim won both sets by identical 6-2 scores. His victim was Bob Martian.

Dick Abele defeated Benny Brose of Eastern, 6-4, 6-4, as BG showed that it had three men who could defeat anybody on the opposing squad.

In the first doubles, Ganim and Colburn defeated Martian and Brose, 6-2, 9-7. It was a match which was decided by the brilliant net play and volleying of Colburn and Ganim. It looked for a while that the match was going to be forced into a third set. Martian and Brose broke Colburn's service in the thirteenth game to take the lead, 7-6, but in the next game, Colburn and Ganim broke Martian's service and continued to victory.

High Bowlers Named

The Union Activities Organization has announced the high score bowling winners for the Union Anniversary Week Celebration.

In the women's division Barbara Rodenberger took top honors with a score of 246 and the men's division was captured by Tom Haverfield with a 245 score.

Thinclads Place In Four Events

Several Falcon thinclads traveled to Columbus Saturday for the 17th Annual Ohio State Relays.

The Relays are considered an individual affair with no team being declared the winner. Teams were entered from all over Ohio, Michigan, and Pennsylvania, with most of the Big Ten teams also competing.

Although the Bowling Green thinclads didn't win an event, they placed in several.

Bernie Casey, BG's MAC championship hurdler, placed fifth in the 120 high hurdles. Hayes Jones of Eastern Michigan won the event in a time of :13.6. Jones is rated as one of the best hurdlers in the world.

Other places were garnered by the Falcon one-mile relay team which took fourth, the shuttle-hurdle relay team which took second, and the distance-medley relay team which took fifth.

Only one record was broken during the Relays. Ergas Leps broke the 1,000-yd. run record with a time of 2:11.3.

Former Ohio State speedster Glenn Davis suffered his first duo defeats in the OSU stadium. Dave Mills, the former Lakewood high school star that caused such a sensation several years ago when he broke the national 440 yd. record, turned back Davis in both the 400-meter run and the 300-yd. dash.

'Melomania' Features Popular Kingston Trio At Denison University

The Kingston Trio and the George Shearing Quintet will headline a program of entertainment to be presented at Denison University in Granville, Friday night, May 15.

"Melomania," a word meaning "an inordinate passion for music" is the title given to the stage show.

The appearance of the Trio will be their only one in Ohio this spring. They will be joined by the George Shearing Quintet featuring the famed blind jazz pianist, and the Salty Dogs of Purdue, the same college dixieland band that has appeared twice on coast-to-coast color TV programs. This will be their first Ohio appearance.

Other groups that are scheduled to appear the same week end at Denison include New RCA Victor recording star Phineas Newborn Jr. and his trio, the Gin Bottle Seven, and Harry Epp's Muskat Ramblers.

The producers like to consider the program as "Ohio's answer to Newport" and have invited students from 36 Ohio colleges and universities to attend. Tickets and further information may be obtained by writing "Melomania," Granville.

Site Purchased For UCF Bldg.

The United Christian Fellowship recently purchased property at the southwest corner of Ridge and Thurston Streets to form the site for a new headquarters building for UCF.

The cost of the property is $31,500. All but $3,500 has been raised, announced the Rev. Paul Bock, director of UCF. These contributions were donated by various individuals and businessmen in northwestern Ohio, UCF alumni, and members of the faculty at Bowling Green State University.

Four of the sponsoring denominations have made tentative plans for statewide campaigns for student centers at all state universities in Ohio. They are United Presbyterian USA, American Baptist, Evangelical and Reformed, and Congregational Christian. Three of the other sponsoring denominations, Evangelical and United Brethren, Disciples of Christ, and Methodist, are studying the problem.

Foreign Flicks Feature Of Fall

The Campus Movie Committee announced that films for the fall program will be chosen to correspond with the various holidays.

For example, a science fiction movie featuring Frankenstein might be shown on Halloween, according to the committee.

All movies to be run next year are being selected from the categories of comedy, music and drama. Also foreign films will be shown intermittently as an added attraction.

gistration envelope.

The new cards will be processed during the summer, and in the fall, the students will receive them after paying their fees, Lynch said.

There are several reasons for the new ID cards, he explained. The library will have a more positive means of identification and this is the first step in making the system of checking out books more efficient. Also, cashing checks downtown will be made easier for the students, with the cards bearing pictures of their owners.

"The cardboard ID that we have used in the past couple of years has also become easily mutilated and lost," Lynch said.

Prospective seniors in the College of Education must first see their advisers to plan their schedules and then have them approved by Dean John E. Gee or Ralph H. Geer, his assistant. Business Administration seniors follow the same procedure, except that it is not necessary for them to report to their advisers to make out their schedules. This is done in the College of Business Administration office by Dean Benjamin L. Pierce or his assistant, John R. Davidson.

Seniors in the College of Liberal Arts must also see their advisers to arrange their schedules before going to the Liberal Arts office to have them approved by Dean Emerson C. Shuck or Harold G. Steele, assistant to the dean.

All other undergraduates must meet with their advisers to arrange their schedules before beginning to pre-register April 27.

Board Picks 4 BG Flag Designs; Trustees To Make Final Selection

The Spirit and Traditions Board has named four entries for the final selection in the Bowling Green Flag Contest, according to Lee Lowery, chairman.

Lowery also commented on the success of the contest in which there were 75 student and faculty entries.

The board asked and received help in their final decision from Professors Willard Wankelman and Philip Wigg of the art department.

Three of the selected entries were submitted by Joseph Hruby and the fourth by Joyce Blumen-schne.

These drawings were turned over to Norman Nunamaker, Student Body president, who gave them to Pres. Ralph W. McDonald. President McDonald has in turn submitted them to the Board of Trustees, who will make the final decision.

If one of the final entries meets with the Board's approval, flags will be made and placed in the Union, Men's Gym, and the Stadium.

U Of M To Be Colloquium Site

The psychology colloquium, originally scheduled to be held on campus the week end of May 2, has been transferred to the University of Michigan. According to Dr. Cecil Freeburne, associate professor of psychology, Bowling Green has sponsored the colloquium every year since its inception.

The conference includes a luncheon with a speaker yet to be announced, and after lunch a colloquium on a subject of general interest.

The purpose of the colloquium, Dr. Freeburne said is to give undergraduate members of Psi Chi, national psychology honor society, a chance to present their research to fellow-students and to faculty members. Last year, about 10 schools attended the colloquium.

Dr. Freeburne said that this was the first time any other school had shown an interest in holding the colloquium. Dr. Freeburne added that he felt it was good for students from the University to travel to another school for the conference.

Cobus Hour Speaker

Dr. Raymond W. Derr, associate professor of journalism, will discuss the topic, "Is Conformity Typical?" at Cobus Hour tomorrow at 3:30 p.m. in the Alumni Room of the Union.

He has indicated his topic will not deal with campus conformity, but rather the conformity in business and in job situations which face college graduates.

Cabinet Discusses Changes In Clubs At Recent Meeting

Recognition of a new campus organization, reacceptance of an inactive group, and a proposed name change, were the main items discussed at the recent Student Cabinet meeting.

Recognition of the International Relations Club as a campus organization was granted by the Cabinet after presentation of a request by Herman Koby, chairman of the Student Organizations Board.

The International Relations Club is a discussion group national in scope, whose purpose is to promote interest in international affairs and foreign relations. Dr. Edward Clafin is the adviser.

The Square and Compass Club, already a recognized campus organization, but inactive since 1955, has requested that its charter be reaccepted. They proposed one change in the charter, that their membership now include students who are now members of the Masons, DeMolay, Job's Daughters, Rainbow Girls, and Eastern Star, or interested students whose parents are members of a Masonic Order.

After discussion by the Cabinet concerning this charter change, the Cabinet requested that Prof. Wilbur Abell, adviser to Square and Compass, appear at a cabinet meeting before a decision is made.

The Campus Christian Fellowship Club requested permission to change its name to the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship Club. This request was due to the similarity of the name to that of other organizations on campus.

The Cabinet asked that the Organizations Board hold another interview with this club and make a further report.

Anniversary Seal, Motto Are Created To Celebrate Founding Of University

In the upper right-hand corner of the March, 1959, edition of the University magazine appears a seal that will be on all University publications and stationery during the 1959-60 school year, commemorating the school's fiftieth anniversary.

This anniversary seal, featuring the front view of the Administration Bldg., was designed by Dr. Harold Van Winkle, director of the University Publications and News Service, and Carol Creason, a senior art major in the Colleges of Education and Liberal Arts.

Dr. Van Winkle aided in the original design, while Miss Creason did the art work.

Also to be used on the school's publications will be the motto, "Education Our Challenge; Excellence Our Goal."

This slogan was composed by Dennis Blue, a sophomore in education from Cuyahoga Heights. He is a student in Dr. Robert R. Hubach's expository writing class, one of five such classes submitting entries for the anniversary motto.

Prof. John R. Davidson, general secretary of the anniversary committee, visited these advanced writing classes and explained the need and basis for the slogan.

"It has become customary for all universities to have a motto when observing such a celebration," he said.

"The main idea in the chosen motto is that it explains why BGSU is here and what goals it wishes to attain. Another thing that makes it different is that it is timeless and can be the permanent motto of the University," he added.

THE ANNIVERSARY MOTTO, "Education Our Challenge; Excellence Our Goal," was composed by Dennis Blue, University sophomore.

THE UNIVERSITY ANNIVERSARY will be commemorated with this seal appearing on all University stationery and publications next year. The seal was designed by Dr. Harold Van Winkle, director of the News Service, and Carol Creason, senior art student.

17th Annual Swan Club Water Show Hailed As Outstanding Performance

By SHERRY CARSTEN

"Another outstanding performance" was the comment most heard after Swan Club presented its seventeenth annual water show, "Inside U.S.A.," last week end. Colorful costumes, combined with effective lighting, good swimming, and an excellent choice of music, made this another "show to remember." Miss Iris Andrews, faculty adviser to Swan Club, was the director.

Opened in New York

New York's Grand Central Station was the setting for the opening number as the group went through the various formations of a train. An underwater number was especially unusual, and the "Rockettes" from Radio City followed with a precision kicking routine.

The "Quakers" from Pennsylvania—sophomores Ann Bauer, Gayle Frisby, and Judy Tieman—captured the hearts of the audience with their costumes, their smiles, and their clever motions. The six Ohio "Cheerleaders" then strutted through their number with near-perfect synchronization.

The Big Race

The Indianapolis Speedway was a big attraction as seniors LuAnn Courtney, Joy Hennage, Muriel Morse, and Carolyn Rasmus sped around the "track" to win the big race. Featured next on the program was a blues duet by Barbara Draves and Pat Monasmith. In the next number, Huckleberry Finn and his pals seemed to come to life, and their devilish pranks were actively portrayed by Miss Hennage, Miss Morse, and Miss Rasmus.

Two of the most outstanding numbers of the evening were Dona Rae Whittaker's interpretation of the "Spanish Don" and the "Gambling Gals" from Las Vegas, Margo Davis, Gladys Griesmer, Carolyn Weltner, and Shirley Zafirau, who presented their version of a typical night club floor show. Also impressive was the sophomore group's rendition of "China Town."

Other Special Features

Other features included a group candle number, always impressive, quartet routines, the freshman "Yellow Rose of Texas," and a solo by LuAnn Courtney who appeared in the Swan boat as the "Rose Bowl Queen."

The show-stealer, though, turned out to be the Bathing Beauties from Atlantic City—Jim Hart, Ernie Malzahn, Jack Michael, Willie Philbin, and Hank Reest, all members of the men's swim team.

The hour and a half show ended with the entire group in "Show Me The Way To Go Home."

Crews Named

John Hepler, assistant professor in speech, was in charge of lighting, and Mrs. Winnie Wood made the more than 150 costumes for her fourteenth consecutive year. Music was under the direction of Lorrie Shatto. The ushers and crew members were physical education majors and volunteers.

Graduating seniors performing in the final water show of their college career were Jan Black, LuAnn Courtney, Barbara Draves, Joy Hennage, Pat Monasmith, Muriel Morse, and Carolyn Rasmus. Special recognition goes to Gladys Griesmer and Dona Rae Whittaker who recently suffered ankle injuries yet gave outstanding performances.

Wankelman Invited To Teach Courses At Hawaiian School

Dr. Willard Wankelman, professor of art, is among the distinguished staff of visiting professors invited to teach at the University of Hawaii this summer.

Dr. Wankelman will augment the resident faculty on summer duty to teach the 6,000 Hawaiian, mainland and foreign students expected to enroll in the 1959 Summer Session. Accredited by the Western College Association, credits earned are transferable to mainland colleges.

A full summer program of dances, luaus, cruises and island trips are planned for students and teachers attending. The six week session runs June 21 through August 3. Special student and teacher package rates begin as low as $495.

Application for enrollment and travel are now being accepted. Complete information plus illustrated literature and summer session catalogues are available through Dr. Robert E. Cralle, Director University Study Tours, 3305 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, 5, Calif.

GEOLOGY FIELD TRIP

Dr. M. S. Loughed and Dr. R. D. Hoare of the University geology department, along with 13 students, traveled some 2,000 miles through the eastern portion of the United States in a renewal of the annual spring geology field trips during spring vacation.

The over-all purpose of the trip was to view the various geological structures in the East. The group visited such places as Gettysburg, and Harrisburg, in Pennsylvania; Asbury Park, Patterson, and Franklin Furnace, in New Jersey.

COOK IS SELECTED

Dr. Gilbert W. Cooke, professor of business administration, has been selected as one of two men to represent Ohio at a national conference on Savings and Residential Financing. The conference will be held at the Palmer House in Chicago May 7 and 8, sponsored by the United States Savings and Loan League.

The League annually brings together 35 to 40 leading university educators who are interested in the financing of and investment in residential real estate. Speakers and consultants of national reputation in the field of real estate financing are also represented.

GREENE GIVES LECTURE

"Brain Functions" was the title of a lecture delivered by Dr. John T. Greene, instructor of psychology, at a meeting of the Sigma Xi club, April 7. Sigma Xi Club is composed of men holding doctorates in science and who have been elected to scientific honoraries from other schools.

PROF PUBLISHES ARTICLE

Dr. Brian Sutton-Smith, assistant professor of psychology, has shown in a recently published article that children's games reveal a great deal about individual and social behavior in a particular time and place.

Using a game known among children in many lands as a representative example, the article provides "A Formal Analysis of Game Meaning." It was published in the January edition of Western Folklore.

HYMAN DIRECTS CONFAB

Dr. Melvin Hyman, assistant professor of speech and director of Speech and Hearing Clinic, was in charge of arrangements for the spring conference of the Ohio Association of Speech and Hearing Therapists which brought an estimated 200 therapists from all over the state to the University last week end.

Speech pathology, voice disorders, articulation therapy, hearing, and surgery were among the topics of discussions and lectures at the meeting. The program also included business sessions, films, and a luncheon.

SOC PROFS BUSY

Several members of the sociology faculty were engaged in meetings or speaking engagements last week end.

Four staff members attended the annual Ohio Valley Sociological Society meeting April 17 and 18 at Columbus. Dr. Donald S. Longworth, chairman of the department, and Drs. Joseph K. Balogh, C. G. Swanson, and Frank F. Miles attended.

Drs. Swanson and Balogh also attended the Ohio Academy of Sciences at Capitol University April 16 to 18. Dr. Balogh reviewed a study on "The Television Habits of High School Boys."

In a series of talks, Dr. Longworth discussed "The Family Cycle" Friday at the annual spring congress of the Child Conservation Leagues of Northwestern Ohio at the Elk's Home in Findlay. He spoke on "Family Tensions" at the Inner-City Lodge of B'Nai Brith in Findlay, April 3. "Dating" was his topic at the Lowry Hall after-dinner discussion April 16.

YEAGER ELECTED

Dr. Raymond Yeager, assistant professor of speech, was recently elected president of the Ohio Association of College Teachers of Speech at their spring meeting at Ohio State University.

TUTTLE IS ELECTED

Dr. Thomas H. Tuttle, chairman of the department of philosophy, has been elected secretary-treasurer of the Ohio Philosophical Association.

The election was held at the Association's business meeting, April 11. Dr. Tuttle was also named to membership on the Association's program committee.

O'DONNELL STUDY PUBLISHED

"The Theatre Annual 1957-58" recently published a study made by Dr. Norbert F. O'Donnell, assistant professor of English, on the works of Ibsen and Shaw.

Dr. O'Donnell revealed in his studies that the Norwegian and English playwrights dealt with similar situations but drew different conclusions on life from them.

LAKOFKY BOWL EXHIBITED

A stoneware bowl, made by Charles Lakofsky, associate professor of art, has been selected for inclusion in a group of ceramics to represent the United States at the Second International Exhibition of Ceramics. The exhibition will be held at Ostend, Belgium, July through September, 1959.

At the close of the exhibition in Ostend, the works will be circulated for a period of two years throughout Europe.

THREE ATTEND MEETING

Three members of the business education department attended the annual meeting of the Ohio Business Teachers Association in Cincinnati recently.

While Dr. Galen Stutsman attended a meeting of the executive board of the OBTA, Dr. Elfreda Risher participated in several meetings and Dr. Mearl Guthrie spoke to four high school classes in the Cincinnati area.

HILTNER IN COLUMBUS

John Hiltner, instructor in geography, was in Columbus Tuesday to attend a planning session of the Ohio Conservation Laboratory. The Laboratory is a cooperative venture of the state colleges, and it will be held at Camp Muskingum near Carrollton from June 16 to July 19.

GUTHRIE PARTICIPATES

Dr. Mearl Guthrie, chairman of the department of business education, participated in discussions concerning the unification of all U.S. business education organizations while attending the Eastern Business Teachers Association convention in Atlantic City recently.

HAVEN GIVES SPEECH

Dale Haven, associate professor of music, spoke on "Developing Appreciation of Music in Children" at a meeting of the Delta chapter of the Child Conservation League last night in the home of Mrs. Ronald DeWalt, 312 South Grove St.

Balogh Summarizes TV-Viewing Habits At Recent Meeting

"Television-Viewing Habits of High School Boys" was the report summarized by Dr. Joseph K. Balogh, associate professor of sociology, at the Ohio Academy of Sciences meeting April 17 at Capitol University, Columbus. The 100 boys questioned were attending an Ohio metropolitan high school.

Dr. Balogh reported that 50 per cent of the boys indicated that television helped them get better grades. Comparing the time given to study with recreation and television, and investigating the scholastic benefit derived from television, and discovering parental influence on viewing time and program selection were the main objects of the study.

The questionnaire was administered to a random sample of 103 sophomores, juniors, and seniors representing a cross section of socio-economic levels.

BG Sophomore Named Winner

William L. Lehman, a sophomore business administration major, has been named the winner of a $125 National Food Brokers Foundation, Inc. scholarship.

Lehman is the second recipient of the award, which was established at the University last spring by the Food Brokers Foundation. The prize is given once each semester to a Bowling Green business student interested in a food industry career. Other selection criteria include scholastic ability, need, and character, according to Dr. Benjamin Pierce, dean of the College of Business Administration.

COLLEGE PUZZLE CONTEST

FOR STUDENTS AND FACULTY MEMBERS

2 GRAND PRIZES

Rambler "American"! Big-car roominess... small-car economy... tops in performance!

WIN A RAMBLER STATION WAGON!

LIGHT UP AND LIVE IT UP! 3 great cigarettes offer you 627 chances to win! So pick your pack—save the six wrappers—and get going! It's crossword puzzle fun and real smoking pleasure all the way!

ENTER OFTEN—HAVE FUN—AND WIN! But think carefully! This puzzle is not as easy as it looks. At first the DOWN and ACROSS clues may appear simple. There may appear to be more than one "right" answer. For example, the clue might read: "Many a coed will be given her best date's P-N." Either "I" (PIN) or "E" (PEN) would seem to fit. But only one answer is apt and logical as decided by the judging staff, and therefore correct. Read the rules carefully. ENTER AS OFTEN AS YOU WISH. Good luck!

RULES—PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

- The College Puzzle Contest is open to college students and college faculty members except employees and their immediate families of Liggett & Myers and its advertising agencies.
- Fill in all missing letters . . . print clearly. Use of obsolete, archaic, variant or foreign words prohibited. After you have completed the puzzle, send it along with six empty package wrappers of the same brand from L&M, Chesterfield or Oasis cigarettes (or one reasonable hand-drawn facsimile of a complete package wrapper of any one of the three brands) to: Liggett & Myers, P. O. Box 271, New York 46, N. Y. Enter as often as you wish, but be sure to enclose six package wrappers (or a facsimile) with each entry. Illegible entries will not be considered.
- Entries must be postmarked by midnight, Friday, May 29, 1959 and received by midnight, Friday, June 5, 1959.
- Entries will be judged by the Bruce-Richards Corporation, an independent judging organization, on the basis of logic and aptness of thought of solutions. In the event of ties, contestants will be required to complete in 25 words or less the following statement: "My favorite cigarette is (Chesterfield) (L&M) (Oasis) because" Entries will be judged on originality, aptness of thought and interest by the Bruce-Richards Corporation. Duplicate prizes will be awarded in event of final ties. Illegible entries will not be considered. By entering all entrants agree that the decision of the judges shall be final and binding.
- Solutions must be the original work of the contestants submitting them. All entries become the property of Liggett & Myers and none will be returned.
- Winners will be notified by mail as soon as possible after completion of the contest.
- This contest is subject to all Federal, State and local laws and regulations.
